

Sponsorships & Exhibition of ESCC2024

About the conference

The European Symposium on Comminution & Classification (ESCC) has a very long tradition. After Braunschweig, Gothenburg, Izmir, Leeds, Toulouse for the last events, we are proud to welcome the worldwide community in Miskolc, in the neighbourhood of the Tokaj wine region, between the Miskolctapolca cave bath, Diósgyőr Castle and Lillafüred attractions. This new event will combine the fundamentals of breakage, advanced models and comminution and classification processes on mineral processing, biorefinery, food, pharmaceutical, chemical and materials industries as well as recycling industries and waste processing. We will have plenary and keynote lectures from leading comminution and classification experts from all over the world, poster sessions and exhibitions by related companies.

- Date and location: 24th – 26th June, 2024 at the University of Miskolc
- Expected number of participants: Around 120
- Publications: Call for papers (on-line electronic), Conference Brochure and Program (printed), Book of Extended Abstracts (on-line electronic), Special Issue of ESCC2024 of Chemical Engineering & Technologies (after conference publication).

Why sponsor?

During this conference, there will be the various academic, industrial and professional actors of the domain waiting you to meet. Your presence will be the opportunity to promote, at an international level, the products, expertise and dynamism of your company in this sector. As partner of this event, you can contribute and communicate by different ways:

- The exposure of your products/services
- the diffusion of your advertising in the program of the conference,
- or a sponsoring of your choice (see below).
